

A StrataCash Management BOQ account has been tailored just for you.

When you pay your strata levies it's not like paying council rates or a utility bill.

The levies are funds held on your behalf to cover upcoming maintenance on your building and other expenses – so where those funds are deposited are of real personal interest and concern.

It's also why a BOQ StrataCash Management account to hold levies is such a popular choice.

It has advantages other accounts simply don't have.

 StrataCash

It's still our money - so to know it's deposited with a major financial institution is obviously reassuring...

The concept of an account tailored to the specific needs of strata owners and managers was an innovation of StrataMax, the Australasian specialist and market leader in strata management solutions.

We have developed and introduced BOQ StrataCash Management accounts in conjunction with Bank of Queensland Ltd, one of the longest established and biggest financial institutions in Australia.*

In uncertain times, having that knowledge and reassurance has to be a very comforting fact.
